

UBA Cameroon Admitted to Join the American Chamber of Commerce in Cameroon (AmCham)

The American Chamber of Commerce in Cameroon (AmCham) has admitted UBA Cameroon as a member for the 2022 fiscal year.

The American Chamber of Commerce in Cameroon is a hub for business intelligence and connection. Its primary objective is to advance the development of trade, commerce, and investment between the United States of America and Republic of Cameroon. It pursues policy initiatives at the highest government and business levels and provides valuable advocacy, information, networking, and business support services. With over 100 members, at present, AmCham comprises businesses of all sizes and sectors from multinationals and large corporations to personalized operations.

Admission into such a prestigious organization will provide opportunities to work with businesses that function notably in Cameroon and the USA as well as other countries. UBA Group is the only African Bank licensed to operate in the US. The UBA New York remains open to business.

Attending a session of the American Chamber of Commerce in Douala, the MD/CEO took time out to present UBA Group as well as UBA Cameroon to members. He declare the willingness of the bank to work with AmCham in whichever domain where their expertise will be required.
