

UBA Cameroon Marks the 2023 Day of the African Child with a visit to the Trinity Foundation Orphanage

Staff from branches in Douala visited the Trinity Foundation Orphanage on 16 June 2023. The visit fell on the day of the African Child commemorated across the continent. It was an opportunity to spend time with these orphans and give them hope that tomorrow will be better.

Under the UBAF, the staff carried along with them food items and books under the read Africa initiative to promote reading among African youths. Speaking on behalf of the UBA delegation Malaika Bissong the branch manager of the Airport Branch called on the children to be obedient, hardworking and show love for each other. She went on to tell them to take their studies seriously for it will help them in the future.

Fointama Beizia head of Corporate Communication carried out a reading exercise with the kids. He explained to them the need to learn and perfect reading for it will open up the world to them. He reiterated the books handed should be kept well, read and passed on to others.

Rev. Odette Bongyu who created the orphanage thanked the UBAF for the gifts and called on them to continue to think about them. She assured the delegation the gifts would go a long way to help the kids especially during this summer holiday. She also said the visit fell on an important day for the kids as African children are remembered.

The Trinity foundation Orphanage was created in 2017. It caters for more than 60 children who leave there permanently and another more 60 who live out of the orphanage.
